Good Evening Madam Secretary,

I write on behalf of Intervenor CREW to confirm that we have not received any objection to the authenticity of the documents appended to Attorney Sherman's Affidavit by the 5:00 p.m. EST deadline today. As such, I do not believe any remote hearing is warranted for tomorrow morning so that Attorney Sherman can be cross examined on the documents. Thank you for your time on Friday, and we look forward to completing the hearing regarding the challenges.

Sincerely,
Amy Dieterich

Attorney Sus,

I am in receipt of CREW's limited intervention application and have two questions.

1. It is not clear from your application what you hope to do with the exhibits you have provided to my office. Are you seeking to admit them? If so, have you provided copies to all parties?
2. Are you seeking pro hac vice status for Attorney Jonathan Maier, such that he can appear:

Secretary Bellows and all parties of record:

Please see the attached letter from Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington and Affidavit of Donald Sherman.

The exhibits to Mr. Sherman's affidavit can be accessed here: <https://app.box.com/s/1a4p66g24l3zvngvlnq1kagy4ln2kyag?sortColumn=name&sortDirection=ASC>

The same materials were hand delivered at 2:00pm today to the Secretary's office.

Please advise if you have any trouble accessing these materials.

Best,
Nikhel Sus
